DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim(s) 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent and recent Federal Circuit decisions indicate that a statutory "process" under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim(s) recite a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim(s) neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore do not qualify as a statutory process. For example, the "receiving input" and "determining dct" method are of sufficient breadth that it would be reasonably interpreted as a series of steps completely performed mentally, verbally or without a machine. The applicant has provided no explicit and deliberate definitions of "receiving input" and "determining dct" to limit the steps to the electronic form of the "a method of encoding".

Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim(s) 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the unencoded video" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

5. Claim 2 recites the limitation "the converted description layers" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

7. Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Puri et al. (NPL Forward Error Multicast) (IDS).

Regarding claim 1, Puri discloses a method of encoding video data comprising the steps of: receiving input video data (see "raw video" in fig. 1); determining DCT coefficients (see "encoder" in fig. 1 and mpeg in column 1, page 745, wherein it is inherent that DCt coefficients are processed in encoding) for the uncoded video data; coding the DCT coefficients into a base layer bitstream and a enhancement layer bitstream (see "layered representation" in column 2, page 745) according to a fine-granular scalability coding (see multiresolution in column 2, page 745); and converting the base layer bitstream and the enhancement layer bitstream into a plurality of equal priority descriptions (see "non-prioritized MD packet" in column 1, page 746).

Regarding claims 2 and 12, Puri further discloses comprising the step of transmitting the converted descriptions layers over different transmission channels (see "multicast" in title).

Regarding claims 3, 7 and 13, Puri further discloses comprising the step of decoding the plurality of equal priority descriptions (see "transcoder" in fig. 1).

Regarding claim 4, Puri further discloses wherein the decoding step is performed based on at least one of the plurality of equal priority descriptions (see "transcoder" in fig. 1).

Regarding claims 5, 9, 10 and 14, Puri further discloses wherein the plurality of equal priority partitions is comprised of partitions generated from the base and Application/Control Number: 10/538,566 enhancement layer bitstreams (see fig. 2) and a forward error correction (FEC) code according to predetermined criteria (see "FEC" in fig. 1).

Regarding claim 6, the claim(s) recite analogous limitations to claims 1 and 2, and is/are therefore rejected on the same premise.

Regarding claims 8 and 15, Puri further discloses wherein the decoding means is an MPEG-4 decoder (see column 2, page 745).

Regarding claim 11, the claim(s) recite analogous limitations to claim 1, and is/are therefore rejected on the same premise.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to RICHARD TORRENTE whose telephone number is (571) 270-3702. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F: 7:30 - 5:00 EST.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Mehrdad Dastouri can be reached on (571) 272-7418. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
